

FISCAL NOTE

SB 138 - HB 105

February 11, 2007

SUMMARY OF BILL: Reclassifies incest from a sexual offense to a violent sexual offense.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- This bill would require offenders convicted of incest to register with the sexual offender registry on a quarterly basis rather than annually.
- The Board of Probation and Parole (BOPP) estimates this bill would impact a minimal number of offenders required to register and any increased costs to process those additional offenders would be not significant. According to BOPP, once these offenders are registered in the system, the quarterly updates are not time intensive.
- The Tennessee Bureau of Investigation would not require additional resources as a result of this bill.
